

Brace Map

A blank graphic organizer template. On the left, there is a large vertical curly brace. To its right is a central column of ten horizontal lines. To the right of this column are two vertical curly braces, one positioned above the top five lines and one below the bottom five lines. To the right of each of these braces are two horizontal lines, one above the other, for labeling categories.