

Addressing Middle School Challenges Workshop

Strategies and practices to support the unique needs of adolescent students

Middle school educators face a unique responsibility because their students are in a period of tumultuous growth and change. In this one-day workshop specifically designed for middle school educators, you'll deepen your understanding of the five major challenges that middle school students face during adolescent development. This course also offers an opportunity to take a detailed look at The Responsive Advisory Meeting Book and to learn about one of the seven purposes of Responsive Advisory Meeting and how it can be utilized to meet the critical developmental needs of students.

Key Features

- Examine specific challenges that are unique to middle school students:
 - academics
 - self-esteem
 - fitting in
 - peer pressure
 - disappointment/rejection
- Deepen your understanding of the Reflect and Recalibrate purpose of Responsive Advisory Meeting
- Increase your knowledge of the role and responsibilities of being an advisor

“

Very beneficial! I learned a ton that I can take back to my practice.

–Jennifer, 2020 participant

Valuable, interactive, engaging, and relevant!

–Allison, 2020 participant

If you're looking for a unique way to help middle school students through the emotional ups and downs . . . this is the workshop for you!

–Patricia, 2020 participant

”

IMPORTANT DETAILS:

- Suitable for grades 5–8
- Prerequisite: 4-day Responsive Classroom Course for Middle School Educators
- Resources included:
 - Addressing Middle School Challenges Resource Book
 - Investing Students in the Rules Planning Guide
 - The Responsive Advisory Meeting Book

