

Connecting Morning Meeting to Academics

One-day workshop

Suitable for educators of grades pre-K-6

Strengthen students' connection to the core curriculum while continuing to meet their need for belonging, significance, and fun.

Learn how to use the four components of Morning Meeting to increase academic engagement. This one-day workshop explores ideas for modeling, reviewing, and practicing academic content and skills during Morning Meeting.

Important Details

1. No prerequisite
2. Resources included:
 - Connecting Morning Meeting to Academics Resource Book
 - Doing Language Arts in Morning Meeting
 - Doing Math in Morning Meeting
 - Doing Science in Morning Meeting
 - Doing Social Studies in Morning Meeting

Agenda

- Establishing SEL and Academic Competencies
- Practicing Skills in Morning Meeting
- Teaching Competencies in Morning Meeting
- Connecting to the Academic Day
- Using Themed Morning Meetings
- Planning Session

Participants will:

Develop Interactive Modeling lessons that teach academic skills

Plan Morning Meetings that grow skills and behaviors that lead to academic success

Learn activities that connect to the curriculum and help students feel belonging, significance, and fun

“Everything you need to create an impactful Morning Meeting.”

—Nuriya, second grade teacher”

Contact us

to bring this workshop to your school or district

responsiveclassroom.org/on-site-services

