

Classroom Management That Works for Special Area Teachers

One-day workshop

Suitable for educators of elementary special area content (art, music, physical education, world language, and other special area classes)

Keep every class on track with consistent routines and positive engagement.

As a music, art, PE, or other special area teacher, you juggle large groups, tight timeframes, and students from every grade while creating engaging, high-energy lessons. In this workshop, you'll learn practical, easy-to-implement strategies to build positive relationships and keep students focused from the moment class begins. Discover how to create consistent routines, set clear expectations, and create a calm, welcoming, and productive learning environment.

Resources included:

- Responsive Classroom for Music, Art, PE, and Other Special Areas
- Classroom Management That Works for Special Area Teachers Resource Book

“ This workshop gave me strategies that actually work! I now have clear routines that keep every class focused and engaged, no matter the grade level.

—Susan P., elementary music teacher ”

Agenda

- Child and Adolescent Development
- Teacher Language in Special Areas
- Routines and Procedures That Work
- Responding to Off-Task Behavior

Participants will:

Reflect on developmental challenges across grade levels and their impact on special area classrooms

Practice language to effectively coach, guide, and encourage students

Plan routines for starting and ending class that create a predictable and calm environment

Develop respectful responses to off-task behavior and misbehavior

Contact us

to bring this workshop to your school or district.

responsiveclassroom.org/on-site-services

Register today

to attend this workshop at one of our events.

responsiveclassroom.org/training

