

Introduction to Responsive Classroom

One-day workshop

Suitable for educators of grades PreK–12

Learn how to start building safe, joyful, and engaging classroom and school communities today!

Discover how to create classrooms where students feel connected, engaged, and ready to learn. In this interactive workshop, explore a research- and evidence-based approach that integrates social, behavioral, and academic learning. Experience strategies that build relationships, increase focus, and strengthen engagement—and leave with practical tools you can apply right away. Perfect for newcomers or those ready to be inspired and refresh their practice.

Resources included:

- Introduction to Responsive Classroom Resource Book

“ I now see how the approach weaves academics, behavior, and relationships together.

A great overview!

—Jennifer L., third-grade teacher

“ As someone new to Responsive Classroom, this workshop gave me exactly what I needed: the big picture and why it matters.

—Dan G., fifth-grade teacher

Agenda

- What is the Responsive Classroom Approach?
- Developmentally Responsive Teaching
- Effective Management That Leads to Engaging Academics
- Practices That Promote Engagement and Well-Being
- Understanding Misbehavior
- Next Steps

Participants will:

Explore the Responsive Classroom approach and see how it strengthens effective instruction for social, behavioral, and academic learning

Engage in interactive activities that demonstrate how to create a classroom community that meets the needs of every student, every day

Reflect and collaborate with peers to identify next steps for professional growth and potential schoolwide implementation

Contact us

to bring this workshop
to your school or district.

responsiveclassroom.org/on-site-services

Register today

to attend this workshop at one of our events.

responsiveclassroom.org/training

